MATHCOUNTS is a national coaching and competition program designed to stimulate 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students' interest and achievement in mathematics. Annually, more than 17,000 volunteers including teachers, engineers, alumni, and other participants coach students and conduct MATHCOUNTS competitions. Now in its 19th year, over 4 million students have participated. Nearly 6,000 schools register annually from all states, U.S. territories, and State and Defense Department schools worldwide. Each year approximately 500 local competitions are held. On average, 530,000 students participate each year at the school level. The students competing here today represent the top three schools from each chapter among the 142 schools that competed at the chapter level in New York State.

SPECIAL THANKS

Appreciation is expressed to the Rensselaer School of Engineering for its support of this competition and for the use of the facilities of the university.
